Lexington

VOL. 2.-NO. 30.

LEXINGTON, MISSOURI, WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 23, 1872.

G. S. RATHBUN. ALEX. 6
RATHBUN & GRAVES,

A TTORNEYS AT LAW, LEXINGTON, MO.

Mill practice in all the courts of the Sixth Julicial Circuit, District and U. S. Courts.
Prompt attention given to collections. Office:
Main street, one door that of Zeller Bros., up [appro-ly]
[appro-ly]
[appro-ly] BYLAND & SON, A TTORNEYS AND COUNSELLORS AT Law, Lexington, Mo. Office, No. 67 Main street, over the store of Eucherg & Jennings. Practice in all the courts of this and adjacent counties, and in the Supreme Court of the State, or District Court of the United States, Collec-tions made.

M. C. WALLACE. ZACK. J. MITCHELL. Manufacturers of All Kinds of WALLACE & MITCHELL,

A TTORNEYS AND COUNSELLERS AT Law, Lexington, Mo., will practice in all the courts in Lafayette county, and in the Court of Record in adjoining counties, and in the District Court of the State. Collections and other business intrusted to their care promptly attended to. Office, opposite Courthouse, over "Lexington Savings Bank," Main street. [apr5-ly SACKS

AND DEALERS IN

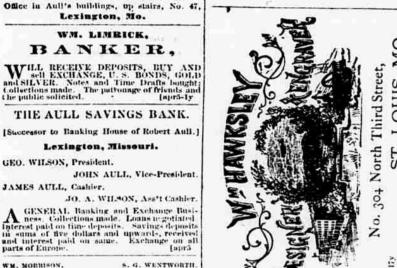

HENRY L. HAYSES. DOMESTIC COTTONS

Office No. 875 Main street, over Tevis' Drug Store, will practice in the Lafavette and adjoining counties. Special attention given to collections and the investigation of lamb titles. AGENTS

COTTON

MILLS.

ST. LOUIS.

- OF -

Each Day.

PICKETS FROM $1 TO $10.

MURRAY, MILLER & CO.

ST. LOUIS MO.

CITY ASSESSMENTS.

LEXIMUTON, Mo., Sept. 24th, 18/2.

Managers,

BANKERS SEND YOUR ORDERS TO THE LEXINGTON, MISSOURI. St. Louis Tag Manufactory Y AND SELL FOREIGN AND DOMESTIC Exchange, Gold and Silver, and transact Where you can get shipping tags printed—tw proceeds promptly remitted at current rate of Exchange. The highest market price paid for County and City Warrants, and all descriptions of Bonds ne-goritated on favorable terms.

THE LEXINGTON SAVINGS BANK, STATE LOTTERIES

OF LEXINGTON, MISSOURI, Main Street, Opposite Court-House

MOSES CHAPMAN, Cashier. JAMES WENTWORTH EXCHANGE

--:0:--

JOHN W. WADDELL, Pres't.

BANKING HOUSE WM. B. KINCAID & CO..

EXCHANGE on St. Louis, and other cities, Bought and Sold. Collections made, and proceeds promptly remitted at current rate of exchange. United States and other States bought and sold on cognisision, and Real Estate paper negotiated on favorable terms.

Br. W. P. BOULWARE. continues the Practice of Medicine in Lexington, Mo., and its vicinity. Illereddence is on Third street, and office near the old Farmers' Bank. For the information of strangers, he would state that he has an experience in the practice of his profession of thirty-five years.

PHYSICIAN AND, OBSTETRICIAN OF ORIGINAL MISSOURI MISSOURI Rowman's, on South street. June 19-19 EYE INFIRMARY.

SAMUEL GALLAND has fitted up be-office on the corner of Franklin and Laurel, Lexington, Mo., where he will treat all sof the eye of whatever nature. Patients coming from a distance can obtain suitab-boarding places. Address Box 15, Lexington interference of the control of the contro LEXINGTON CITY MILLS.

EMANUEL EASTER, Proprietor. Water Street, Lexington, Mo.

THE BEST BRANDS OF FLOUR constantly, on hand, also Bran and Feed.

All orders left at P. C. Patterson & Co's story, corner Main and Laurel, will be promptly attended to.

HAIR WORK MISS ANNA DOWDEN, Is now prepared to manufacture all kinds of HAIR GOODS. HAIL JEWELRY made neatly and promptly. Combings straightened, Switches, Carls, Chignons, Braids and Bolls made to order. Will supply to order every description of

HAIR GOODS. Call and see her at Mrs. Price & Arnobi's Milliers Store, Lexington, Mo. malif. Draw at 12 and 5 o'clock

GADDLES AND HARNES T. C. CRENSHAW, In the Brick bullding one door north of O. S. Presbyterian Church, Pine St., Saddles, Harness.

COLLARS, ZINC COLLAR PADS CURRY COMBS. HARNESS OIL,

Every article usually kept in a house of the kind.
In our barness none but the best OAK TAN LEATHER is used, and made by experienced workmen. I will sell as elseup as good work can be sold soywhere. The Repairing done at any time T. C. CHENRHAW. H. MISCHON.

Boot and Shoe Maker, Pine street, between Main and Market, LEXENGTON, Mo. septil-tf MAMMOTH

Livery, Feed & Sale STABLE.

[Late Brant & Arter.]

SAMES ARTER - - - Propriet Pine Street, Lexington, Mo. KEEP constantly on hand; and for hire, Bug gles, Caringes, Hacks and haddle Horses. If you must fast driving stock, go to the Mann-noth Hable JAMES ARTER, Proprietor. GUARDIAN'S NOTICE OF PINAL DUBLIC NOTICE is hereby given that the assessment roll of taxable real und personal estate is the city of Lexington for the year 1973 has been completed and returned to the City Council by the Assessor.

All persons faciling themselves aggreed by the assessment of their property, an hereby notified to file their objections in the office of the City Register on or before the 7th day of Ostober, 1872. (orphi-m) A. H. McFADDEN, Mayor.

Attornens, Bankers, &c. St. Tonis Advertisements St. Tonis Advertisements

. M. BEMIS. E. J. DROWN. S. A. BEMIS.

ST. LOUIS PLANING MILL BROWN

& CO. Sash, Door & Blind Factory

LESLEY GARNETT & CO. Mrs. A. S. Pommer

Pianos. b, KURTZMANN'S, ac lowest rates.
c. 712 Chesnut street.
Louis, Mo. jyl7; JAMES SWENEY

Manufacturer and dealer in Copper, Sheet Iron and Tin Work. BOURBON and Alcohol Stills, Plumber Bollers, Copper Kettles, Steambout an Intel Cooking Ranges, &c., No. 613 Nort Stain street, St. Louis, Mo. jylry

BROHAMMER BROHAMMER & CO.

GENERAL.

COMMISSION & FORWARDING MERCHANTS. 15 South Commercial Street

Exchange Building, Saint Louis, Missouri. 57 Personal attention given to the Purchas ad Sale of Grain, Flour, Pork, Lard, Hemi lope, Cotton, Tobacco, &c.

OSEPH A. BUCKLAND GENERAL

Commission Merchant NOS. 109 & HI N. COMMERCIAL ST., St. Louis, Mo.

rompt attention given to orders for purchas

PLANTERS HOUSE, PARK & KALREY, Proprietors. This House is in the business center, with erful, the most elegantly finished most durable, and will stand in tune longer than any other. All 71-3 octave. Write for.

THE ARION

PARLOR CEM PIANO Teache MT All are Fully Warranted. BE

THE ESTEY COTTAGE ORGAN,

$50 TO $1,000. 's the best made. Buy no other. Call and beathem, at 244, Norto Fifth Street, St. Louis, Mo. Circulars mailed so application. When you or let state what paper you saw this advertisem at 18. VIELE & MILLS, General Agents, Successors to J. Viele

New Restaurant!

D. H. McCRACKEN

H AS opened a new restaurant in the old Vir-ginia Hotel, on Laurel Street, where menl-will be served at all hours, of the best the marke-affords, at prices to suit the times.

REGULAR DAY BOARDERS will find it a pleasant and economical mode of fiving to take their meals with us. sep4-3m

BOURBON HOUSE,

Corner of Main and Poplar Streets, Lexington, - - - Missouri. --- c:c:---THIS is a First Class Hotel, furnished in go

LONG'S HOTEL, Pine Street, North of Main. Lexington, Mo. Excellent Rooms, good accommoda

LYNCH HOUSE,

Sedalia, Missouri.

To Stock Shippers.

The excellent Steamer "ALICE." With Geo. Keith as Captain, and Roley Ports as First Clerk, makes her regular trips once week, and would call the attention of stoo shippers to the fast that the best of care willb taken with any stock entrusted to their care.

Analysis on heavil

NEW SALOON. aurel Street, Lexington, Missouri

MITCHELL & LOOMIS, Agents.

The Old Stand of John Bachr.

THE BEST WHISKY TO BE HAD

IN THE CITY. I also keep constantly on hand the very best brand of wines and cigars. Give me a call. PENN CALVIN. BY BAYARD TAYLOR.

Search high and low, search up and down, By light of stars and sun,
And of all the good folks of our town
There's like Penn Calvin none. He lightly laughs when all conderna. He smiles when others pray; And what is sorest truth to them

Penn Calvin, lift, as duty bids, He only lifts his languid lids, And says: "The morn is fair!" Learn while you may! for Lue is stern, And Art, alas! is long."
He hums and answers: "Yes, I learn
The casience of a song."

To him is lette play

The world is dark with human woe Man eats of bitter food." 'The world,'' he says, ''is all aglow With beauty, bliss and good!" "To crush the senses you must strive, The beast of flesh destroy!" God gave this body, all alive,

"Nay these be heathen words we hear; Yet learn to grasp and hold; There's power and honor to achieve, And royal rule of gold!" Penn Calvin plucked an open rose And carolled to the sky Shine, sua of Day, until its close-

They live, and so do Il" His eyes are clear as they were kissed Our grave and stern philanthropi Looks sail, and passes on. Our pastor scowls; the pious flock Avert their heads and flee; For pestilence or earthquake shock Less dreadful seems than he.

But all the children round him cling. Deprayed as they were born: And vicious men his praises sing. Whom he forgets to warn.

Penn Calvin's strange indifference gives Our folks a grievous care: He's simply glad because he lives, 'And glad the world is fair!

& Lobe Story.

Curing a Coquette.

She was a little thing, possessing a back in massive shinning black eves, that were usually luminous with mis- hastened along the shady wood path, chievous mirth.

But, ah! how I loved her, and how many heart-aches I endured from her of her fluttering white robes. love of coquetry! Verily, I believed the spirit of mischief reigns supreme came in sight of her resort, and there, n jetty eyes and midnight tress &s. visiting during the sultry August deepest grief. days; but we were not the only guests for the house was filled, almost to overflowing, with a merry commansion ring again with their gay elty!

laughter and with witty repartee. Annie Sheldon, the bewitching li tle lady whom I have attempt d to ment would allow me: describe, was in no wise behind hand in contributing her share towards the darling? Will you not let me comgeneral amusement, and when the fort you?" shouts of laughter were the merri- She started at my touch, and the out great exaggeration. est, and the applause the loudest, it accompanying sound of my voice, but appreciate the desperate flirtations kled in her eyes,with her attendant cavalier, while so fortunate as to secure her as a curled. companion, she would lean listlessly "Far from it," I cried hastily. "1 conversation reply in discouraging monosyllables. But notwithstanding her strange, almost unaccountable behavior, there were times when she greeted my approach with smiles, and was so affainfluenced her, but only an inordinate love of mischief and coquetry. However, matters could not con tinue in this way forever, for, what caprices, I was becoming desperate; ly I will wed." to win her at all hazards, and also, if ingly: possible, cure her of her terrible pro-her, I could never be really happy with a flirt as my wife. I decided to try her first with her side, replied: own weapon, firtation, and at once especially when they happen to be She blushed, and candidly said:

"To tell the honest truth, Mr. tend to change my mame for his. There, is my confession a very great surprise, sir?" I acknowledged that it was not, as engaged; and said, in conclusion,-" Although I am not fortunate replace your ring with a wish."

Silently she extended her hand, and taking it, I was about to slip the ring upon her finger, when a slight being the following letter: rustle caused me to raise my eyes, and there, in the doorway that connected the parlor with the library, denly I remembered a favorite heunt mad. I might have forseen when I and fell a victim to Mexican treacha sturdy oak, from which the ground sloped gradually to the river's bank below, and from which, glancing to the etite form, with dark hair banded East, one commanded a superb view. So I plunged in among the trees, and glauciug to the right and left as I went, in hopes of catching a glimpse

But I saw nothing of her until I as I had surmised, she sat : but her I met her first at the house of a face was buried in her hands, while mutual friend, where we were both her whole attitude betokened the

I crept softly to her side, and then, by her low, suppressed sobs, I knew that she was weeping, and ah! how I pany, who made the spacious old reproached myself then for my cru-

> Tenderly I threw my arms around her, and said as quictly as my excite-"What is the matter, Annie, my ride over the blue hills, before break- your grief?" I cried, passionately. can't remember anything longer than hence the name. Thrusting me from her, she started about seven days. fall to my lot to escort some other to her feet, and drawing herself to lady, a short distance behind her, her full height, exclaiming angrily, advertisement, it is a great point that I might the better witness and although the bright tears still spar- gained. The fair sex don't hold all "Is it that you wish to insult me.

"Won't you tell me, Annie?

glance back at me, as if to say, "You ed lover of another, speak such words see I am not quite caught yet, sir." | Paul Hammond, that you, the accept rock. Reep dropping your acressing from the public and they have you followed me will soon melt under it like rock horses—stolen by Indians—does not Many of them seemed to come directrowing on the bright river which listener to your love-making? If bounded on one side the grounds of the latter, I can assure you it was is like tearing out a dam because the our hostess, and by any chance I was entirely unintentional;" and her lips water is low. Either plan will pre-and silently back in one end of the am here to tell you that I love, adore best for advertisers." Because when boat, and dipping her white hand in you, and ask you to give me this money is tight, and the people are following truthful observation conthe translucent water, watch me precious little hand, to be my own forced to economize, they always cerning the country papers, and the furtively from beneath her dusky forever!" And I pressed it to my read the advertisements to see who duty of giving them wholesome sup-

But she snatched it away, laughing can trade to the best advantage. scornfully, and I thought, rather hysterically, as she replied,-

"I am not one to be satisfied with second love, Mr. Hammond; I must ble and charming that I knew it was content to take a secondary place, Mrs. Sarah Payson Parton, better woman, for with the paper is the is for them." what would Miss Benson think of my acceptance of her recent lover?"

pensity for firting, for I knew that, ber a ring? For you did-1 saw you !"

friends, absorbed in serious thought, who could see us, at this moment, in others which were widely copied by and often, if I glanced at her from our own happy home, while as I others which were widely copied by a number of journals. Her reputa-

A watery Crave.

From the Kansas City Times. Yerterday while Mr. James T. Bright and his son were out fishing Hammond, it is a gentleman cousin, on the Clay county shore, they were and a very dear one, too; so dear that attracted by something which floated six months from this very day, I in- past their boat, and which had the appearance of a corpse. They succeeded, after floating down stream awhile, in drawing forth from the water the body of a woman, dressed from several remarks she had made, I in black alpaca, whose face of marble had already concluded that she was paleness gave evidence of trouble and care. She did not appear to be more than eighteen years of age, although enough to be able to claim a cousin- the following letter, found in her ship, I should be much pleased to pocket-book in her bosom, proved her to be twenty years of age. She had no money or valuables upon her person, the only clue to her identity

"ST. JOSEPH, Mo., Oct. 6, 1872 "God forgive me for the crime I stood Annie Shelden, I oking at us suffer hereafter is nothing compared to my present misery. Alone in St. with a mingled expression of grief, Joseph, not a penny or a friend to adcontempt and astonishment. The next vise me ; with shame, oh ! horrid fate! instant she turned, and, with a ges- staring me in the face, tired and wea-Sheffield, England, as a nurse to a go. I came West-went to Leavenhave striven against this, but late is against the cool hall and entered the fragrant little garden.

I glanced hastily around, but could see no trace of Annie; and then sudsee no trace of Annie of hers, a rustic bench at the foot of left England that this would be the a sturdy oak, from which the ground end. May all who hear of my death cry along with the lamented Colonel > of age on the have no friends.

>
> MARY JANE KYLE. The corpse was taken out of the interred to-day. The Science of Advertising.

it. If you haven't don't. newspapers.

ter's ink lest your sands of life be crated him. He returned to Texas, nearly run out. Never run down your opponent's rangers in the Indian war.

goods in public. Let him do hisown advertising.

was generally called forth by some did not raise her head, and I contincan't advertise on that plan either. ty-six inches around the breast, has It was always so; did we go for a Won't you give me the right to share three months, forget that most folks killed the Comanche chief 'Big Foot,' garded as the finest coal and mineral

If you can arouse curiosity by an the curiosity in the world.

vent good times from ever coming. sells the cheapest, and where they port:

Death of Fanny Fern.

Our dispatches Saturday contain own weapon, firstation, and at once became quite cool and distant in my conversation to her, and very assidutions in my attentions to Jennie Benson, a blue-eyed, golden-haired little she did not seem to be pleased at the loss of her would-be devoted the loss of her would-be devoted the loss of her would-be devoted that she did not seem to be pleased at the loss of her would-be devoted that she did not seem to be pleased at the loss of her would-be devoted the loss of her would-be devoted that she did not seem to be pleased at the loss of her would-be devoted that she did not seem to be pleased at the loss of her would-be devoted that she did not seem to be pleased at the loss of her would-be devoted that she did not seem to be pleased at the loss of her would-be devoted that she did not seem to be pleased at the loss of her would-be devoted that she did not seem to be pleased at the loss of her would-be devoted that she did not seem to be pleased at the loss of her would-be devoted that she did not seem to be pleased at the loss of her would-be devoted that she did not seem to be pleased at the loss of her would-be devoted that she did not seem to be pleased at the loss of her would-be devoted that she did not seem to be pleased at the loss of her would-be devoted that she did not seem to be pleased at the loss of her would-be devoted that she did not seem to be pleased at the loss of her would-be devoted that she did not seem to be pleased at the loss of her would-be devoted that she did not seem to be pleased at the loss of her would-be devoted that she did not seem to be pleased at the many year. And then the home paper at any price, is the cheap own in the loss of in it is found the information to be obtained from no other source.

An other thing to be taken into the follow her busband to Rome, he being a sculptor, and engaged on a bust of Mr. Davis

There is living in Kanawha county, West Virginia, Mrs. Racicel limited. There is therefore the great of a county, Virginia, in 1774. She has a grand-daughter f the loss of her would-be devoted cavalier, and I noticed that she did not appear quite as lively and spirited as formerly, but would sit, even when surrounded by her merry friends, absorbed in serious thought, some day; and now tell me about that cavalier, and I noticed that she did not appear quite as lively and spirited as formerly, but would sit, even when surrounded by her merry fealty to herself no one could doubt friends, absorbed in serious thought, some day; and now tell me about that was rejected by the editors of several Boston journals. One of them at length ventured to purchase it for half a dollar. It proved successful and was followed by a number of stantial support."

A Detroit woman with the rhen-dierman. Soon after the commence-matism consulted a claivorant, who ment of her literary career she re-A Detroit woman with the remainded in Freich and forman consulted a claivorant, who went into a trance and wrote the remainded to their care.

A Detroit woman with the rhemainded in Freich and German. Soon after the commence of the success of my stratagem.

One day, as I sat in the pleasant sub-lit parlor, chatting gayly with a success of my stratagem.

One day, as I sat in the pleasant sub-lit parlor, chatting gayly with the sentiful ring that she wore, and begged for a closer inspection; it was heard, surrounded by chattering the sub-lit parlor, chatting from the success of my stratagem.

One day, as I sat in the pleasant sub-lit parlor, chatting gayly with the sentiful ring that she wore, and begged for a closer inspection; it was a begged for a closer inspection; it was a large emerald, surrounded by chattering the surfaced and the area of its bare 500 acres. The solid contents of the come are 280,000,000 tons. It is thought that every foot beneath the fifty clitizen effected insurance on the lift of his wife to the amount of any and striking. They contain, many sound and thoughtful observations on life and the world, and, now that the is gone, many who have present from a favorite cousin.

A MATHEWS.

A Detroit woman with the rhem must ement of her fiterary career she romoved to New York, and for many care and wrote the commentation contain 14,000,000 tons. It is indeed, "replied the lady, "to see a large emerald, surrounded by chattering the surface of the commentation of the case; "If find your case is one that surface observed it was a very begged for a closer inspection; it was a large emerald, surrounded by chattering the second that the area of its the proposed to the corner of th

Big Foot Wallace.

The Rockbridge Citizen, a Virginia paper, tells this interesting story:

"Big Foot Wallace," the famous Texan fighter, hunter and ranger, known throughout the length and breadth of our southern country, arrived here last Thursday morning on a visit to his friends. Since he left here, in 1836, he has ranged every nook and corner of the Lone Star State, through New Mexico, Arizona and California; through the Mexican states of Souora, Chihuahua, Coahuiba; began among the Comanches, Lipans, and 'Greasers;' slept under the walls of Montery while 'Gld Zach's' cannon thundered; with his trusty rife has brought down scores of butfalocs, itons, panthers and wolves; has ridden a mustang a hundred miles of start a mill to manufacture cotton goods.

The Democratic pressof Kentucky, with not an exception, insist that the patty, undismayed or disheartened by the result of the late elections, most stand to its guns and win victory a November, if victory can then be achieved.

The Richmond Register says: "A little daughter of Mr. Daniel Moore, of this county, living near Elliston, about six years of age, was fatally burned one day last week. The mather went out to the spring, leaving the child slone. As she was returning she heard the screams of her wolves; has ridden a mustang a the child's clothing had been entire-steak ture of infinite scorn, swept away, and directly I heard the hall door close after her.

William Anderson Wallace, third nate little one dayning of another morning. I have only been in America nine weeks. I came from the house now intense agony. This was an event I had not anticipated, England, as a muse to a pated, and I knew that as Annie had Mrs Vick, who paid me my wages, of Andrew Wallace, a younger dent of the pated, and I knew that as Annie had $3-$6 as soon as I arrived at Chica-brother, in the year 1816. This old Frankfort. ring on her supposed rival's finger, she would at once infer, and paturally enough, too, that it was the seal of our engagement.

This knowledge made me very needs, and now the palticular and the seal of friend, no hope, no money! What is left! Oh! God of Heaven! have sheen in the family—descending from father to son-for more than half a century. Of course 'Big Foot' grow from a baby to a boy; went to school to 'Old Tidd'—paceasy, and I tried various excuses is left! Oh! God of Heaven! have Nimreds in our midst—and from a > forgive me, and may God do so be-fore whose bar I must soon appear.

>
> Farewell to all this beautiful and pression had the tragic event made upon him that he turned a deaf ear grade.

He was at the battle of Salado boat and taken to the house of Mr. Wool, invaded Texas in 1842. Shortly Bright, whence it will be taken and after he joined the Mier expedition Judicious advertising always pays. castle of Perote, from thence to the pertions of Barren, Warren and If you have a good thing advertise city of Mexico, where he was put to Large type isn't necessary in ad- tation of the late Governor McDowrertising. Blind folks don't read ell (then a member of congress), > prevent him from dispensing 'true hospitality ' to all who come."

be first, or nothing; but even were I the announcement of the death of be the first love of every man and in favor of female, suffrage—when it known by her non de plume of Fanny locality identified. The paper gives Forn. This intelligence will be re- the county and town where printe! of our exchanges, in speaking of the "Miss Benson! She is nothing to ceived with regret in literary circles much of their importance in the family left by Hon. Garret Davis, up in divorces. "Miss Benson! She is nothing to me, and never will be, and more than thoughout the country. She was world, and it gives in detail all the born at Portland, Maine, July 9, 1811, local news, which cannot be gained over the second time. He left four with her numberless flirtations and darling, it is you I love, and you onfirst year at the time of her death. history, and the rise, growth and deters, the eldest being Robert Trimble whom they are both in love with and Still she hesitated, and said doubt- Her life affords an instructive illus- velopment of the town and county Davis, well known as a lawyer and whom they both intend to marry tration of the triumph of literary can be measured and recorded only ex-legislator; the youngest Garret when they reach Salt Lake, which is "But what did you mean by giving activity and zeal and earnestness over by the local newspaper that constant difficulties. She was first married by the local new spape. People do marriage, a young man of fine promto Mr. Charles Eldridge of Boston, not properly appreciate these home ise, a student at Washington Lee But I laughed gayly, and boldly drawing her yielding form to my side, replied:

| Substitute of the property appreciate these home newspapers. They measure the but upon the death of her husband number of columns it contains. The substitute of the physician to take three ounces of University. His eldest daughter is brandy a day, and knowing that six-but upon the death of her husband number of columns it contains. The substitute of the physician to take three ounces of University. His eldest daughter is brandy a day, and knowing that six-but upon the death of her husband number of columns it contains. The number of columns it contains. The county, and the youngest Mrs. Col. been patiently taking forty-eight she was suddenly thrown upon her home paper at any price, is the cheap-wolves; has ridden a mustang a the child's clothing had been entire hundred miles a day for a week, and ly burned, and the skin peeling off. made many a hearty meal off mule A physcian was immediately sent son of Andrew and Jane Blair Wal- died in a few hours, after suffering owned by Mrs. P. A. Wallace, widow to free myself from my companion, and finally succeeded; I hurried through the cool hall and entered the through the cool hall and entered the same true against this, but fate is through the cool hall and entered the same true against the tread the parties on a farm and played all sorts of A subscription.

wretched world. I am twenty years of age on the 14th of this month. 1 to the entreatics of his friends and went to Texas.

when the Mexicans, under General under General Green, was captured, drew beans, drew a white one escaped being snot; was taken to the work upon the streets. At the solici-was with the gallant Harry Hays and At the close of the war he was ap-At the close of the war he was apadvertising.

Let your advertisements have something of the dash in them, with Antonio to El Paso. 'Big Foot Wallace, weighing two hundred and You can't eat enough in one week forty, avoirdupois, standing six feet

"They dubbed him 'Big Foot' Wallace,

Down in Mexico, As Lilliput would call his Brobdingnag, von know Blg Foot's' home is at his ranche in Medina county, thirty-five miles occasionally she would dart an arch Paul Hammond, that you, the accept-rock. Keep dropping your adver-drouths of former and the floods of o'clock, the air was full of leaves.

> they were taken up by the terrible A Word to Country Newspapers.

Kentucky News. effort is being made in Mays-The Rockbridge Citizen, a Virginia activity of $50,000 to start a mill to castern cities, for Chinese domestic aper, tells this interesting story:

WHOLE NO. 82

on the one side, and the Chaluts and for, but could render the unfortu-William Anderson Wallace, third nate little one no assistance. She ages resulting from the drunkenness of those upon whom they are depen-

Governor Leslie is the Superintendent of the Baptist sabbath school at

The cereal crop in northeastern Kentucky, according to the Maysville Eagle, appears to be a failure. Mr. Robert Davis, of Paducah still carries on the same business commenced in that city forty-four

A subscriber of the Ashland Jour-The grape crop of Bourbon county wine made will be of the inferior The Maysville Engle says: "Nearly all the tobacco of this county is housed. It is a big crop, notwithstanding a heavy percent of it has been destroyed by worms.

A petition will be presented to the Legislature this winter for the creetion of a new county, formed from Edmondson counties. The present tobacco crop of Pen-dictou and Grant counties is said to be larger and better than was at first through the Mexican Minister, Gen. anticipated, and the Grant crop is Don't be afraid to invest in prin- Almonte, President Santa Anna lib- heavier than that of Pendleton. A correspondent of the Courier this point this season." The estate of R. A. C. Alexander. deceased, consists of seventeen thousand acres of land in Muhlenberg People who advertise only once in by no means such a big foot, but he county. A portion of the land is relands in the county. On a part of this land is situated the town of Aidra, with the fine blast furnaces erected by Mr. Alexander during his life. The Mayfield Democrat says : "On ly from the clouds. Most of them were cotton-wood. It is supposed tornado which occurred in Arkansas on the same day." The Lexington Observer and Reporter has this startling intelligence: We are informed that some negro women who were lately arrested and put in the watch-house for a petty "The local paper is an absolute offense, while there confessed that necessity to the country and com- they and several more of the same munity where it is published. All sex voted here last August disguised the city papers cannot supply the as men. If this be true there can be ever made in his life was on his wedplace of a home paper. That should no doubt that the Radical party are grand-daughter fifty-six years old, and deceased wife's sister implies either has fourteen children, ninety-nine that the busband has treated his first grand-children, and two-hundred and wife very kindly or cruelly. If kindfriends, absorbed in serious thought, and often, if I glanced at her from where I sat beside the sprightly Jennie, I would surprise her eyes fixed upon me with a half-wondering, half-reproachful expression in their midulght depths; but I would not relent, and, appearing not to notice her, would continue the merr; badiner, would continue the mer twenty-three great-great grandchil- ly, the sister wishes to experience the

Davis, Jr., the only child by his last their destination.

JOB PRINTING The state of the s

CHEAP FOR CASE. Orders by mail strended to promptly him will be spored to give justishested price and workmanship. BROVES & DAVIS

News Items.

There is a great demand in San

The effort made to culfirate the tea plant at Calistoga, Califol have entirely failed. Nearly all the lants, it is stated, are dead. A lad named Hone was boiled in beer vat, at Dubuque, last Friday, and when taken out his skill peeled off. He died lu a few hours. There was a fight at Shiloh Church Covington county, Mississip pl, th other day, in which the combilitant were the Sullivans and their friends the Dykes on the other. Two men were killed outright, another mortally wounded, and four others bady injured. The authorities of Middletown. Connecticut, propose to use the $3;-000 which its liquor dealers have paid for license as a fund for the relief of families who receive injury or dam-dent for support. A dispatch says of the configuration t White Hall, Green county, Illinois, last Friday: "The town is more ompletely wiped out of existence than was Chicago. The desolation is omplete. During the fire some ruffians undertook to raise a disturbmce, which, however, was prompty quelled by the citizens."

The only persons left at the Tip-Cop house on Mount Washington nal informs that paper that ice form- are three signal officers, who are ed over the face of a tub of water at equipped with a large stock of coal, his house on Tuesday night, October four bushels of onions, about forty hams, twenty bushels of potatoes, a good supply of canned goods, and all is large as compared with late years, manner of groceries in profusion, a but the quality is not good, and the violin, harmonicon, a good sized library and quantities of newspapers, and expect to spend a pleasant win-

One J. Q. Bruce bought an elevator at Indianola, Iowa, about a month igo, and, being a prominent member f the Order of Patrons of Husbaniry, drew in large amounts of wheat from members in that region. When things were all fixed to his notion, he sloped, swindling the Gangers banks, and other parties, to the amount of somewhere between $10,- J00 or $20,000. Coldwater and vicinity, Michigan, as been startled by the most cruel murder that has occurred in Branch ounty for years. The facts are as follows: About eighteen months Journal from Paducah writes: "Te- ago, a Miss Wedge gave birth to an bacco crop in this vicinity is unusu- illegitimate child, the father, one the would in some manner dispose of the child, then he would take her west and marry her. So she carried the chid-a little girl-down to the lake, threw it in, and stood and lookd on until it ceased struggling and ank. Then she went back to the louse, and when questioned related what she had done. On the 5th ound over to the circuit court.

geously at a very slight expense.

Items About Women. Imitation jewelry is made so perectly nowadays that fashionable la-lies can get themselves up quite gor-ustant both she and Ryan were

Geo. Barrell committed suicide because disappointed in a love affair. He couldn't bear the thought of remaining a single Barrell. A Rhode Island reporter gives this is a positive fact: "A young lady, on returning from a walk with her lover the other evening, rapped him

A Detroit paper says that Mr.

on the face and kissed the door." Tomkins, who is terribly henpecked, says that the greatest mistake he ding-day. His wife denies it and says it was she that was misled.

The flirting at the watering places

this season has all been done by mar-

An Idaho woman was ordered by ATTORNEY AND COUNSELOR AT LAW, Levington, Mo. A. W. HUTCHINS HUTCHINS & TAYLOR, Real Estate and Insurance Agents, LEXINGTON, MO. NOTARY BUSINESS, Conveyancing, Rents Collected, Taxes Paid, and other business Tants attended to. [apr519] REAL ESTATE AGENCY BY THOMAS C. BLEDSOE. Aull's buildings, up stairs, No. 4 Lexington, Mo.

TOUR A. S. TUTT.

TUTT & HAYNES,

WM. LIMBICK.

BANKER,

Lexington, Missouri.

WM. MORRISON & CO.,

GEO. WILSON, President.

JAMES AULL, Cashier.